NEW ALBUM RELEASES

SONGS of faith-hope-and-love

Late 20th Century songs written, recorded and sung by Christians in Australia and beyond.

THREE CORNER JACK was an Adelaide bush band formed in 1979 that lasted around twelve years. The self-titled album was the only one published by the band in 1984.

FINE LOVE was the 7th album for FAMILY. Recorded in Alberts Studios in Sydney with support from Chris Christian and Tommy Emmanuel, it was released in Australia in 1979.

Leigh Newton was the key driver for the band over its lifetime. The various Christian musicians mostly sang songs of peace and justice with a smattering of humorous and faith songs. Leigh and Gerry Holmes wrote various songs on this album, complemented by local artists Robin Mann and Rob Timbs. 'Take My Word' is still a relevant song about bringing God's Word and hope to the nations.

Chris Christian's song, the title track 'Fine Love', was at least partly composed during the time of the recording sessions. Several songs featured the emerging talent of Tommy Emmanuel, including lead solo on 'I Thank You Lord'. The a cappella rendition of 'The Lord's My Shepherd' has great harmonies. I hope you enjoy 'Summer Blues' with its catchy tune and various instrumentation.
