

17 SO YOU LOVE US

© words & music: Rod Boucher 1984/85 Adelaide, South Australia

INTRO C F G C F G C F G F G C ---

V1 C F G
So You love us - yet we do the things we do.
C F G
So You love us - still we say those words to you.
F G Am
So You love us - and we know it deep inside,
F G C
yet we act as though we thought that you had lied.

V2 C F G
So You love us - when we're stupid, when we're sick.
C F G
So You love us - through each crazy little bit.
F G Am
So You love us - didn't understand why we
F G F G
can turn around and hurt you, even kick and scream and curse you.
F G C
Never seem to be content or satisfied.

MIDDLE 1 F G C Am
How come that we can be such a pain and such a pleasure?
F G C Am
How come that we can be such a load but such a treasure?
F G
Worth more than silver, gold or pearls but costing more than all the world.

V3 INSTRUMENTAL VERSE (same as V2)
C F G C F G F G Am F G F G F G C ---
(So you love us) (So you love us) (So you love us)

V4 C F G
So you love us - we can see it clearer now.
C F G
So you love us - time will teach us all somehow.
F G Am
So you love us - and we pray its not too late,
F G F G
to turn around and tell you, that its just as well you had the time
F G C
to wait for us to come back by your side.

V5 INSTRUMENTAL VERSE (same as V2)
C F G C F G
And say, "We love you." Oh yes, "We love you."
F G Am F G F G F G C ---
We know, "We love you."

MIDDLE 2 F G C Am
We know that we can be such a pain and such a pleasure?
F G C Am
We know that we can be such a load but such a treasure?
F G
Worth more than silver, gold or pearls but costing more than all the world.

V6 C F G
So You love us - and our kids will do the same.
 C F G
So You love us - there's no hiding from the pain.
 F G Am
So You love us - it happens time and time again,
 F G F G
the father and the mother, from this one to the other,
 F G C
and the children will discover it the same.

END C C---
So you love us.