

12 LEAN ON ME

© words & music: Rod Boucher 1973 Adelaide South Australia

INTRO E Lean on me. Lean on me. E |

V1 E A
You are strong, you are wonderful,
E
everything you do is a pleasure to behold.
E A
I'm so weak, so insignificant,
E
but I love you more than I can hardly bear.

CHORUS A B7
Show a little love for the one who needs you,
A B7
Show a little need for the one who loves you.
A B7
Show a little need for the one who loves you,
A B7 A B7 B7 |
Show a little love for the one who needs you. Lean on me-----.

V2 E A
When you're down in a troubled time,
E
you retire within your closed mind.
E A
And I am here, ready for your soul,
E
open up your heart and pour your troubles out on me, yeah, yeah.

CHORUS A B7
Show a little love for the one who needs you,
A B7
Show a little need for the one who loves you.
A B7
Show a little need for the one who loves you,
A B7
Show a little love for the one who needs you.
A B7 A B7 A B7 A B7 B7 |
Lean on me. Lean on me. Lean on me. Lean on me-----.

V3 E A
You are one, you think that you're all alone.
E
You think that nobody cares if you live or die.
E A
But that is wrong, we are three you know,
E
God and you and me, we're gonna get when we work together.
