

004 AUSTRALIA'S GOT LOTS OF ANIMALS [1-04]

© words & music: Peter Arthur & Richard Palmer 1992 Adelaide, South Australia.

INTRO E--- x4 E B7 A E

CHORUS E B7 A E
Australia's got lots of animals lurking in the bush.
A E B7
Australia's got lots of animals lurking in the bush.
A E B7
Australia's got lots of animals lurking in the bush.
E B7 A E
Australia's got lots of animals - can you think of one? (two? three?)

(a kangaroo)

V1 E B7 A E
Can you be a kangaroo hopping through the bush?
A E B7
Can you be a kangaroo hopping through the bush?
A E B7
Can you be a kangaroo hopping through the bush?
E B7 A E
and a hop, hop, hop, hop, hop until you drop. CHORUS

(a koala)

V2 E B7 A E
Can you be a koala munching on some leaves?
A E B7
Can you be a koala munching on some leaves?
A E B7
Can you be a koala munching on some leaves?
E B7 A E
and munch, munch, munch, munch, munchin' on some leaves. CHORUS

(not on the recording)

(slippery snake)

V3 E B7 A E
Can you be a slippery snake sliding through the grass?
A E B7
Can you be a slippery snake sliding through the grass?
A E B7
Can you be a slippery snake sliding through the grass?
E B7 A E
slither, slither, slither, slither, slither, slither, slither. CHORUS

(an emu)

V4 E B7 A E
Can you be an emu pecking with your beak?
A E B7
Can you be an emu pecking with your beak?
A E B7
Can you be an emu pecking with your beak?
E B7 A E
peck, peck, peck, peck, peckin' with your beak. CHORUS

make up your own verses