CHANGES

I MET A MAN

WORDS AND MUSIC: ROSANNA PALMER

I met a man, His name is Jesus
He turned my life upside down
When I met this man named Jesus
He turned my very being inside out

I met a man, His name is Jesus
He was someone I could believe in Even better, this man named Jesus
He was someone who believed in me

And its too late to tell me that its not real
I know what I've seen
And its too late to tell me that its not real
I already believe
I met a man...

And its too late to tell me that its not real
He walked into my life
And its too late to tell me that its not real
His truth cut like a knife
I met a man...

He turned my darkness into light
I'm so glad that I'm on His side
He turned my darkness into light
There is nothing that I need to hide
He turned my darkness into light
Gave me purpose, a reason to live
He turned my darkness into light
I love Him so much that I just want to give Give Him my life
I met a man...

Changes are inevitable
I see the purpose but its not easy
Changes are inevitable
The future before me but I have to seize it

What do I do when I'm faced with a choice knowing His touch, hearing his voice
So clearly His word revealed to my heart
Refusing to listen would tear us apart

His love draws me closer,
Draws me to my destiny
His love draws me closer,
He knows what's best for me
His love draws me closer, reveals the grace I need Revealing the things that I need to change

What do I do when He calls me to pray
Do I hesitate or do I come right away
All is revealed when in His presence I stand
It's still up to me to obey His Command

KEEP ON DREAMING

I'm sitting on the top of the world, what a sight to behold
I'm sitting on the top of the world,
I think I might not even grow old
I'm sitting on the top of the world,
That's what it seems like, that's how I feel
I'm sitting on the top of the world,
It's just an illusion but for now its real

I've got a hope that no-one can take away could it be that it might stay I've got a hope, I've never had before could it be I'm in for more

I'm sitting on the top of the world, what a sight to behold
I'm sitting on the top of the world, think I might not even grow old

I've got a dream, its growing in my heart
It's not complete but its a start,
I've got a dream, this world can be a better place
The enemy smashed, gone without a trace

I'm gonna keep on dreaming, till it becomes reality
I'm gonna keep on dreaming, won't become a fatality
I'm gonna keep on dreaming,
This world can be a better place,
I'm gonna keep on dreaming,
The negative picture I'll erase,
I'm gonna keep on dreaming

I'm sitting on the top of the world,
That's what it seems like, that's how I feel
I'm sitting on the top of the world,
It's just an illusion but for now its real,

I've got a hope this world can be a better place,
The enemy smashed, gone without a trace

DESTINY

WORDS AND MUSIC: ROSANNA PALMER

Who are you, Who are you,
Who are you, who - where are you going

Take hold of your destiny
The future is in your hands
Take hold of your destiny
Its up to you to fulfil the plans

Who are you...

Take hold of your destiny...

It isn't very easy at times the road is rough
It isn't very easy the going can get tough
But you can change your destiny
It isn't very easy the valley seems so deep
It isn't very easy the way out seems so steep
But you can change your destiny
Only you can change your destiny

Who are you...

It isn't very easy
when trouble comes your way
It isn't very easy
But after dark there's day and you can change your destiny
It isn't very easy
when all seems negative
It isn't very easy
To remain positive
But you can change your destiny
Only you can change your destiny

TO HAVE IT ALL

WORDS AND MUSIC: ROSANNA PALMER

Never knew there was a love like yours in this world
Nobody told me but deep inside I lived in hope That somewhere, somehow some-one could love like you
You were there all the time
But I stopped you getting through
There was no distance but there was separation
Lack of understanding caused my hesitation

I was searching, I couldn't find real love with sincerity
I was searching, I couldn't see blinded by my dignity

To have it all you have to give it all,
Leave the past behind
To have it all,
You have to give it all have a change of mind

I don't know what you've been through but I can feel your pain
Alone with your tears at times
You thought you'd go insane
When you need a friend I can only try I can lend you an ear, give you a laugh comfort you when you cry
But I know of some-one who can take it away
He is my God the one who heals, His love will remain

If you're searching and can't find real love with sincerity
If your searching and can't see, don't be blinded by your dignity

To have it all you have to give it all, Make a brand new start
To have it all you have to give it all, Have a change of heart
To have it all you have to give it all, Leave the past behind
To have it all you have to give it all, Have a change of mind
To have it all you have to give it all. Give it all to Jesus
To have it all you have to give it all, Have a change of heart

I WILL LOVE YOU

WORDS AND MUSIC: ROSANNA PALMER

Everytime I look at you
Your eyes they tell me a story
No words, much pain, surrounded by mystery
Everytime I look at you
Your eyes they tell me a story
Silently, your heart cries, erase the history

And I'll never know how much it hurt
But I will always stand be you
I'll never know how much it hurt
But I'll be there to see you through

Everytime I look...

And I'll never know how much it hurt
But deep inside I feel your pain
I'll never know how much it hurt
But I can help you break the chain

And I will love you, I see your destiny
And I will love you, My God can set you free

And I'll never know how much it hurt
But I will always stand by you
I'll never know how much it hurt
But I'll be there to see you through

And I will love you, don't let it hold you down
And I will love you, the past can turn around
And I will love you, no matter what you say
And I will love you, beside you all the way

SINKING SAND

WORDS AND MUSIC: ROSANNA PALMER

Almighty God You are my Lord
And when all around is sinking sand
You're the rock on whom I stand
When all around is sinking sand
You lift me to higher ground

You are the rock of my salvation
Your very word brings restoration
You are the rock of my salvation
Your Holy Spirit brings revelation to me

Almighty God ...

You are the rock of my salvation
You have an answer for every situation
You are the rock of my salvation
You are the Lord of all creation

The earth trembles, thunders shake
Bolts of lightning, mountains quake
The heavens part, and you come down
Your mighty voice, it does resound
Consuming fire, rescued me
From the hands of the enemy.

You are the rock of my salvation
You have the answer for every situation
You are the rock of my salvation
You are the Lord of all creation

You are the rock of my salvation
Your very word brings restoration
You are the rock of my salvation
Your Holy Spirit brings revelation to me

PRODIGAL

Who will love the prodigal, now that he's returned
Who will love the prodigal,
now that he has learned
Who will love the prodigal, now that he's come back from high livin'
Who will love the prodigal,
now that the father says forgiven

Took a shot at life, demanded his inheritance
Found out it cut like a knife, losing all significance
Money slipped through his fingers, without any gain
Friendship no longer lingers left alone with his pain
Who will love...

All alone in a pig pen, feeling hungry and cold Coming to himself right then, is this where I'll grow old
Memories of yesterday, living without worry Rehearsing words in many ways, of how to say I'm sorry

Father I am not worthy to be called your son
Father I am not worthy, I'm too quick to run
Father I am not worthy,
I have sinned against heaven
Father I will be your servant, let me be forgiven
Who will love...

YOU NEVER GAVE IN

Lord, you looked down from heaven
And you saw that I had gone astray
Lord you looked down from heaven
But I had turned and gone my own way

Jesus, I was lost in all my sin Still you loved me, you never gave in Jesus, you believed in me all along
I couldn't see that I was so wrong

Lord, you looked down from heaven
You saw my desperation
Lord, you looked down from heaven
But my sin had caused our separation

Jesus, I was lost...

I was walking down a one way road,
I was headed for hell
I was carrying a heavy load,
And I stumbled and fell
In my darkest hour, I was lost in a dream
But you, you gave me the power
I could finally see, that I could be free

Jesus, Oh how I love you
I needed you, I needed you to have died for me
Lord Jesus, Oh how I love you
I needed you, I needed you to have died for me
I owe you my life

CHANGED LIFE

Another life shattered by the fall
Like broken glass smashed upon the wall
Another life falling by the wayside
A broken dream causing you to run and hide

Wasted life, with no particular direction
Wasted life, building a wall of protection
Wasted Life

Another Life...

Wasted life, without a reason for existence
Wasted life, tired of searching for acceptance
Wasted life

Standing in the shadows, and a light comes shining through reflections in the darkness, showing yet another view
Standing in the shadows, and a light comes shining through
In the midst of loneliness, hope of something new
Standing in the shadows, and a light comes shining through Light fills the emptiness is it love, Is it you, is it you Lord?

Changed life,
Now with a new direction
Changed life,
Down with the walls of protection
Changed life,
Now a reason for existence
Changed life,
No longer searching for acceptance
Changed life.

HUNGRY HEART

WORDS AND MUSIC: ROSANNA PALMER

Only a hungry heart
will really find what they're looking for
Only a hungry heart
will recognise the open door

Search with all of your heart and you will find
Then comes true peace of mind
Only a hungry heart...

Search with all...

Without a hunger, aimlessly wandering, not really searching
Without a hunger, wasted words spoken, nobody listening
Without a hunger, no direction visible, blindly stumbling
Without a hunger, vision fading out of sight, slowly dying
Only a hungry heart...

Search with all...

Without a hunger, selfish motives overtake, bringing destruction
Without a hunger, death increases causing, life reduction

Is there anybody out there, listening to what I say
Is there anybody out there, who will hear and obey
Is there anybody out there, who will follow
Is there anybody out there, who will not say no

Only a hungry heart
will really find what they're looking for
Only a hungry heart
will recognise the open door
Only a hungry heart
will hear his voice in the stillness
Only a hungry heart
will do what he says in willingness
Then comes true peace of mind

IT IS FINISHED

WORDS AND MUSIC: ROSANNA PALMER

It is finished, The work of the cross, it is complete
It is finished, We no longer have to live in defeat
It is finished, All was achieved at Calvary
It is finished, Now we can live in victory

The crowd cried out, "Come down from the cross"
The angels stood ready, for He was their boss
But Jesus stayed nailed, love held Him there
A love so great, nothing else could compare

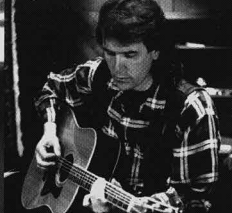

It is finished...

The job was done, the mission complete
All was achieved, the devil under His feet
He died but arose, so gloriously
Now we can live, victoriously

A love so great, to us became good news
A love so great, how could we refuse

It is finished...
