Late 20th Century songs written, recorded and sung by Christians in Australia and beyond.

We are releasing 2 albums with marked differences in genres. Both Rosanna Palmer and Robert Colman have dynamic, high-powered voices that have captivated audiences in Australia and overseas.

For over 4 decades, Rosanna Palmer has been pumping out some pretty hard rock music, releasing over 30 albums since the mid 1980s. She has also produced multiple “rock praise” albums to enhance collective worship.

Robert Colman, who played key roles in West End musicals in the late 1960s in London, went on to release more than 15 albums in Australia. Robert had sell out concerts in cities around Australia and had the lead Peter role in “The Witness” musical in 1979.

Mal Graetz

CHANGES was recorded in 1997 at Singsong Studios in Melbourne. Rosanna and David Palmer, husband and wife duo have been pivotal to the ongoing endurance of an ‘aggressive hard rock outfit’. They have been very upbeat about their faith in God, testifying to the work of Jesus Christ in their lives. This album is testament to their Biblical mindset.

This album was released under Rhema Records in 1978. The “My Tribute” song was composed by Andrae Crouch, a popular Christian artist from the USA. Songs from Andrew Culverwell, a UK Christian artist featured in the MY TRIBUTE album. I have come to appreciate afresh Robert’s powerful voice while preparing his songs for the website.
