

NEW ALBUM RELEASES

SONGS

of
faith-hope-and-love

Late 20th Century songs written, recorded and sung by Christians in Australia and beyond.

Our two new album releases give you a taste of serious techno music from the mid 1980's and an entertaining acoustic female trio from the early 80's.

The band IDEA emerged after a disparaging magazine review of 'La Bouche', a fun Rock band, when it was a support act for Bruce Cockburn. Their mini album "Stone Sharpens the Blade" includes a 20th Anniversary rendition of "Eve of Destruction".

THE THREE BUSKERTEERS made themselves known around Adelaide initially by busking and then frequenting schools, churches and social clubs.

Personally I am not a big fan of electronic techno music, but have come to appreciate the band IDEA from processing the album. Their "songs became prophets rather than funsters", addressing key issues facing humanity. 'Daring' challenges us to "...stand up, speak out, put your money where your mouth is". I encourage you to hear IDEA's plea for a new perspective for our world.

STONE SHARPENS THE BLADE

The songs of WE WENT TO SEE challenge some local institutions, find humour in everyday happenings, glean truths from the scriptures and celebrate the wonder of life itself. The 'Chickens' song is a great take on the "plight of the chicken" - a time to "give a cheer to the chook!" 'Six Little Clowns' is a very catchy tune. I hope you enjoy the delightful harmonies of Mandy, Sue and Kathy as much as I have.
