SONGS

faith-hope-and-love

Late 20th Century songs written, recorded and sung by Christians in Australia and beyond.

The album releases this month from the 1990's are songs straight from the heart. Steve Messer has a way of capturing the everyday happenings and bringing them to life in his country style songs and music.

Kathy Pike compiled her COMMON PLACE DREAMS album at a busy time in life when her artistic expressions had taken 'back seat'. With encouragement from a close friend, this sublime album came to fruition.

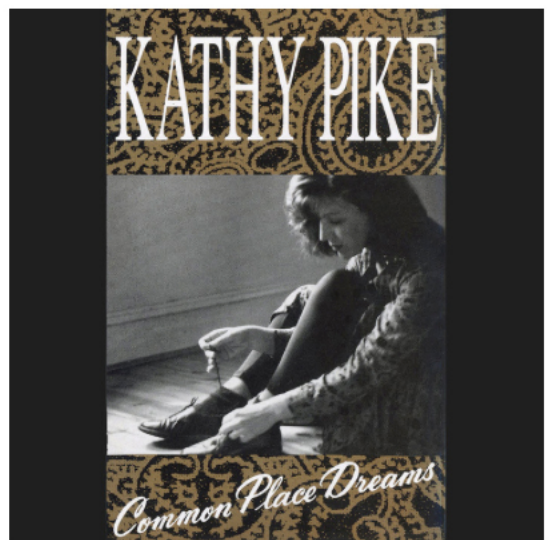

A variety of accomplished musicians bring energy and vitality to both albums.

STRANGE COUNTRY was released on CD in 1998. Songs tackle the hard times of the depression, the fallout of war, the sacrifice of pioneer missionaries and choosing between someone good and someone important. "Take Care of Your Heart" is a laid back song that encourages us to "leave room for love" and "to grow with the changes that will need to be made".

STRANGE COUNTRY

"Common Place Dreams" encourages us to find the beauty and passion in the everyday, common experiences. There is a time to "Say It" rather than playing guessing games. A time to confess, to pursue justice, speak the truth and not to allow our "dreams to get lost in the busyness" of life. The album came out on cassette in 1993.
